

ARTS

Quilt a pleaser

Fisher Gallery's exhibition of the Commonwealth quilt has been a real crowd pleaser.

Artists, tourists, politicians and other Aucklanders have flocked to see the quilt, which is on show at the gallery until this Sunday.

Pictured is deputy prime minister Helen Clark visiting the exhibition with designer Carole Shephard and project co-ordinator Joan Caulfield.

Curator Louis Johnston says many people have made return visits to see the enormous work of art.

