Variety of fibres displayed at Fisher

Embroidery, weaving and patchwork feature in an exhibition by local fibre artists at Pakuranga's Fisher Gallery this month.

The works of Pakuranga Arts Society fibre group will be on display until July 22.

This year membership of the group has increased with the inclusion of patchworkers from Papakura and Howick.

The exhibition will include weavings, floor rugs, quilts, cushions and embroideries that have been produced by society members.

Prize winning quilts from the ENZED Sewing Competition and A Patch In Time exhibition will also be on show.

Recent works from the Design, Sculpture and Printmaking Departments of the Elam School of Fine Arts will continue their exhibition at the gallery.

Entrance: Free or donation.

Gallery hours: Weekdays 10am-4pm, Saturday-Sunday 1-4pm.
