

LOCAL ARTISTS EXHIBIT

Local artists are displaying their talents at Pakuranga's Fisher Gallery from July 5.

Works by members of the Pakuranga Arts Society including paintings, watercolours, ceramics, sculpture and prints feature in the exhibition.

Members of local patchwork and quilting groups will also be showing works.

The entries were selected by Allie Eagle, a working artist of Auckland.

Curator of the gallery Louis Johnston says works were chosen to represent different styles and achievements.

Tutors of the classes at the Society are presenting a special exhibition of work alongside that of their pupils.

The exhibition runs until July 21.
