

Jeff Thomson

Sculpture in the Courtyard

28 April – 27 July

Sculpture Court

Floor talk: Sunday 8 June 2pm and Thursday 12 June 1pm

Jeff Thomson is without a doubt the corrugated iron man of New Zealand. He is well known for his corrugated iron car that has now found a resting-place at Te Papa Tongarewa, Museum of New Zealand and his life-size corrugated iron animals.

He is developing new work to be exhibited at te tuhi – the mark.
