

Wayne Wilson

Three Kings

17 January – 29 February

This body of work consists of images taken in Three Kings, a small Auckland suburb some 10 minutes drive from the Central Business District. It depicts a quieter Auckland, where tall fences don't exist, great grassy lawns reign, 'bach-like' architecture is prolific and an older sense of place is tucked away.

Wayne Wilson: Three Kings, photography, 2003