

CENSORSHIP and the ARTS

1. n. official with the power to suppress whole or parts of books, plays, films, letters, news, etc. on the grounds of obscenity, threat to security etc.
2. vt. act as censor of; make deletions or changes in.
3. ensorship n.; ensorial

The Fisher Gallery invites you to attend a public forum discussing Censorship and the Arts In Aotearoa/New Zealand.

Members of the panel will include : Carole Shephard (Tutor, Elam School of Fine Arts)
Arthur Everard (former Chief Film Censor)
Fiona Clarke (artist)
Ron Left (Artists Alliance)
Steven Lovett (artist)
Shane Broomhall (AIDS activist)
Athina Tsoulis (writer and director of short films)
Loius Johnston (Curator, Fisher Gallery)

where : FISHER GALLERY when : Thursday 15 October 1992 7.30pm admission : $3

13b Reeves Road, Pakuranga, MANUKAU CITY telephone (09) 576 7290 or (09) 576 9999

FISHER GALLERY